

DREAM WEAVER

music by Gerald Ginsburg

words by Arthur Symons

Dream Weaver

Arthur Symons

Gerald Ginsburg

Voice

p 3

I broi-der the world up-on a loom, I

Piano

p with motion

Voice

5 3 3

broi-der with dreams my ta-pes-try; Here in a lit-tle

Pno.

Voice

8 3 rit.

lone ly room I am master of earth and sea, And the planets come to me. I Pno.

rit.

8vb

11

Voice

broi-der my life in - to the frame, I broi-der my love,

a tempo

Pno.

14

Voice

thread upon thread; And the world goes by with its glory and shame, Pno.

17

Voice

Crowns are bar - tered and blood is shed: I f p

Pno.

8vb

4 19

Voice

sit and broi - der my dreams in - stead.

Pno.

p

8vb

22

Voice

And the on - ly world is the world of my dreams, And my

Pno.

poco rall. a tempo

8vb

8va

8va

25

Voice

weaving the on - ly hap - pi - ness; For what is the world but Pno.

8va

8va

28

Voice

what it seems? And who knows but that God, be -

Pno.

8va

8vb

3

30

Voice

yond our guess, sits weav - ing worlds [sits

Pno.

8va

8vb

3

ff

33

Voice

weav - ing worlds] out of lone - - li - ness?

Pno.

8vb

p

sf

p

Ped.